

Activity Sheet 2: Decoding meaning of unfamiliar words

Name: _____ Section: _____

Change the form of the words inside the parentheses by using the prefixes: ir-, il-, im-, and un-, to complete the sentences below.

Example: It is (moral) immoral to cheat.

1. A person who is (responsible) _____ can not comply with school requirements.
2. The flooded roads are (passable) _____.
3. In a paragraph, ideas which are not related in any way to the topic are (relevant) _____.
4. To be acceptable, (logical) _____ reasons must be omitted.
5. His stories about ogres and fairies are (believable) _____.
6. Many things (possible) _____ before are now a reality.
7. There is a law that punishes (legal) _____ logging.
8. A person who does not show courtesy is (polite) _____.
9. An (legitimate) _____ child has parents who are not married to each other.
10. You are (just) _____ when you tell lies.

www.rexinteractive.com